INTRODUCTION

Demographic Profiles has been compiled from publications and magnetic tape files of the Decennial Census of Population and Housing, and from reports and publications of other offices and agencies within the Colorado Department of Health and Colorado State Government. These data have been prepared for the convenience and general reference of data users in response to a widely expressed interest, and represent the latest information available to this office. It is suggested the sources of these data (see Technical Notes and Documentation) be consulted for updating, greater detail and documentation. The Division of Health Statistics and Vital Records hopes to publish Demographic Profiles on a regular basis, and invites other agencies and/or offices to contribute or participate in this endeavor. Comments, questions and suggestions may be addressed to:

All tables present data for the State of Colorado and each County, Planning and Management Region and Health Service Area. A State total appears at the top of each report, followed by Colorado Counties listed within their respective Planning and Management Regions. Data for the three Health Service Areas appear at the bottom of each report. A total for cases of unknown County, Region or Service Area within Colorado also appears at the bottom of each report as required. Figure 1, Colorado Planning and Management Regions and Figure 2, Colorado Health Service Areas, have been provided for reference.

ALL

Source: 1980 Census of Population and Housing, Summary Tape File 1-A.

Note: "Urban" is defined to include 'urbanized areas' and 'places' of 2,500 population or more. An 'Urbanized area' is a population concentration of at least 50,000 inhabitants, consisting of a central city (or cities) and the surrounding, closely settled, contiguous areas (suburbs) with a population density of 1,000 persons per square mile or more. There are seven urbanized areas in Colorado, identified by their central cities: Boulder, Colorado Springs, Denver, Fort Collins, Grand Junction, Greeley and Pueblo. A 'place' can be an incorporated city or a 'Census Designated Place', defined by the Census Bureau as a densely settled (1,000 persons per square mile or more) population center, with a city-type street pattern and can be indentified locally by place name.

Note: A 'family' refers to a group of two or more persons including a householder, related by birth, marriage, or adoption, and residing together. A person maintaining a household alone, or with unrelated persons only, is regarded as a household but not as a family. Therefore some households do not contain a family.

Note: The manner in which respondents were asked their race in the 1980 Census, and hence the distribution of populations by race may not be comparable with 1970 Census data.

The identification of 'Spanish Origin' is independent of race.

Counts by age may not add to total due to methods of estimation and rounding error.

Note: Marriages and Marriage Dissolutions (Divorces and Annulments) are tabulated by the place of occurrence. Births and deaths are tabulated by the mother's place of residence or the decedent's place of residence.

"Low Birthweight" is defined as 5 pounds 8 ounces or less. "Infant Death" is death of a child under 1 year of age. "Perinatal Death" is death of a fetus of at least 20 weeks gestational age or of a child under 28 days of age. Rates of birth, death, marriage and marriage dissolution are per 1,000 population, using 1980 census counts or intercensal estimates, as appropriate.

Fertility rates are live births per 1,000 women age 15-44 years. Estimates of 15-44 year old female populations used for intercensal years may be pro-rata calculations based upon the 1980 age and sex distribution and current estimates of total populations.

Rates of Infant, Neonatal and Fetal Deaths (20+ weeks gestation) are per 1,000 live births.

Rates of Perinatal deaths are per 1,000 deliveries (live births and fetal deaths of at least 20 weeks gestation).

No rates have been calculated for areas in which there were fewer than five actual cases.

Note: The Leading Causes shown are aggregations of causes of death categorized with the International Classification of Disease, 9th Revision. Data users should consult with this document or the Division's Annual Report of Vital Statistics for precise definitions of the causes.

Deaths are categorized by the underlying cause, defined as the condition giving rise to the chain of events leading to death.

Cause-specific death rates are per 100,000 population. No rates have been calculated for areas in which there were fewer than five actual cases.

Not included in totals or presented in tables are eight Quick Response Teams (3 in Larimer, 1 in Otero, 2 in Huerfano, 1 in Las Animas, and 1 in La Plata County) organized to provide non-transport service at least 20 minutes from the nearest ambulance.

ALL

Source: Colorado Department of Health, Health Information Section (discontinued). These data were compiled through surveys of health professionals conducted in conjunction with license renewal until 1980, after which funding was no longer available. Additional detail and information pertaining to response rates can be obtained at the Health Statistics and Vital Records Division. For each profession, the effective year of the most recent survey is presented in parentheses within the table heading.

Note: Tabulations by the "number active" refer to respondents' stated primary place of work for those who were active in their professions at the time of the survey. Tabulations by place of residence for nurses are independant of those by place of work and include respondents not working in their professions.

"Direct Patient Care" for physicians is defined to include the following as their reported primary medical specialty: Family Medicine, General Practice, Internal Medicine, Obstetrics and/or Gynecology, Pediatrics (including Pediatrics-Allergy and Pediatrics-Cardiology).

"Unknowns" represent respondents who identified Colorado as their place of work or residence without specifying a county.

Further detail and information on subsequent surveys may be obtained through the Colorado Department of Health, Division of Health Policy Planning and Evaluation.

Note: These data were obtained through surveys of individual facilities. Totals for "Critical Care Beds" and "Out-Patient Emergency Visits" which are affected by non-response of some facilities are annotated in the table. Totals for licensed beds and the number of facilities are complete.

Number of Licensed Beds are the hospitals' average number throughout the reporting period.

Occupancy rates are calculated for each hospital as follows:

$$\frac{\text{Total Inpatient Days of Care}}{\text{Licensed Beds} \times \text{Days Open}} \times 100$$

Aggregated rates for geographic areas are the weighted means of all hospitals within those areas.

"Critical Care Beds" are defined to include Adult and Pediatric Intensive Care and/or Cardiac Care. Burn Care is not included.

Note: These data were obtained through surveys of individual facilities. Totals for "residents" which are effected by non-response of some facilities are annotated in the table. Totals for licensed beds and the number of facilities are complete.

Number of Licensed Beds and Residents are counts as of 31 December, 1979.
"NCF and NCFMR" = Beds licensed for Nursing Care and Nursing Care Facilities for the Mentally Retarded. "IHCF and IHCFMR" = Beds licensed for Intermediate Health Care and Intermediate Health Care for the Mentally Retarded.

Note: Income is for calender year 1979, as reported on the 1980 Census "Long Form". Data are based on a sample of approximately 19%.

1980 Census definition of poverty reflects revisions recommended by a Federal interagency committee in 1979 to a definition adopted in 1969. The "poverty threshold" is based on total 1979 income and varies by family size, number of children and age of the family householder. The poverty threshold in 1979 for a family of four with two related children under 18 was $7,356.
